“You can not kill our revolution”.. The third Friday for the protests held by Deir Ezzor’s people against the Assad regime

Friday 4-10-2019, protests were launched in several areas of the northern Deir Ezzor countryside to demand the expulsion of the Assad’s forces and Iranian militias from villages and towns east of the Euphrates, according to Deir Ezzor 24 network correspondent. Our correspondent said that the protests were held after Friday prayers in several areas, most notably, Maezila and Al-Azbah towns, under the slogan “You can not kill our revolution”. The protestors gathered near the industrial zone roundabout north of Deir Ezzor and chanted slogans, demanding the expulsion of the Iranian militias, the Assad’s forces and the Russian militias from the eastern Euphrates, and the return of the displaced people to their towns and lands, they also raised slogans, asserting their adherence to the revolution principles. Some of the videos of Deir Ezzor’s protests showed the protesters taking a revolutionary oath to continue their protests and use force if the Assad’s forces and their militias didn’t withdraw from the eastern Euphrates within a week. It is noteworthy that the region have been witnessing a popular movement and peaceful protests against the presence of the Assad regime and its followers in the eastern Euphrates for weeks.

The Assad regime calls on the reconciliation committees in Deir Ezzor to attract wanted people

Deir Ezzor 24 network learned from sources that the head of the State Security Branch in Deir Ezzor, Brigadier General “Daas Daas”, has instructed the reconciliation agents of the Assad regime security branches to increase their activities and attract a number of the wanted people according to new criteria. According to the sources, “Daas” ordered “Fadhel al-Younis”, the mayor of Hatlah town, “Mohammed Suleiman al-Eid”, a member of the Ba’ath party band in the town, and “Abd al-Ghazi” from Al-Salhiyah town, to give guarantees and promises to all those wanted by the security branches that they will not be prosecuted if they return to the areas controlled by the Assad regime in Deir Ezzor, unless “their hands were stained with blood.” The figures mentioned above were ordered to take the names of those who want to reconcile, through agents living in the SDF-held areas. According to the sources, “Mohammed al-Rakrak”, a resident of Zghiyer Jazeera town and a former director of the examinations department in the Assad regime, “Abdul Razzaq Al Sayed Ayed”, a very rich man in Maezila village, and “Jassim Hamdoun al-Zahir”, a resident of Asawa town west of Deir Ezzor, are some of the Assad regime’s agents in the SDF-held areas. It is noteworthy that since taking control of the southern bank of the Euphrates River in Deir Ezzor province, the Assad regime has been trying to create cells in the areas of the opposite bank (eastern Euphrates) which are under The control of the SDF, to carry out what ever the Assad regime security branches order them to do in those areas.

The Revolutionary Guard arrests two elements of its forces on charges of collaborating with the opposition

Monday 7/10/2019, Sources revealed to Deir Ezzor 24 network that the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia arrested two elements of its forces in Al-Mayadeen city in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside. The sources noted that the arrest took place in the badiyah of Al-Mayadeen city east of Deir Ezzor, and that the Iranian Revolutionary Guard accused the two elements of collaborating with factions of the Syrian opposition. The sources indicated that the two arrested elements are Syrians who joined the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia about a year ago after they signed settlement papers with the regime. In recent months, the Iranian Revolutionary Guard has sought to attract young people to its militias in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside by luring them with money. It is indicated that the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia elements are deployed throughout the region extending from the Al-Mayadeen to Al-Bukamal city near the Iraqi-Syrian border.

The Revolutionary Guard militia sends a security committee to Al-Bukamal crossing... What for?

On Sunday, 6 September 2019, the Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) sent a security committee to Al-Bukamal border crossing with Iraq, sources confirmed to Deir Ezzor 24 network. The sources indicated that the security committee is composed of seven people, who will have to submit regular security reports on the movements through the border crossing with Iraq. The sources added that the committee will be the highest authority at the crossing, and that it has started its work directly, taking a building near the crossing as its official headquarters. The sources indicated that an Iranian who speaks Arabic very well headed the committee, and he is the only one authorized to make any decision on the crossing. It is noteworthy that Iran and the Assad regime opened Al-Bukamal border crossing with Iraq a few days ago, after many delays as a result of air strikes.

Taking advantage of what is happening in northeastern Syria.... The National Defense Militia in Deir Ezzor fails to get a green light!

The National Defense Militia elements in Deir Ezzor demanded what they called the “Syrian leadership” to allow them to cross the Euphrates River and take control of the western Deir Ezzor countryside. The demand followed a meeting between officials of the National Defense Militia and the Assad’s forces that was held on Monday morning 7/10/2019 in Al-Mayadeen city east of Deir Ezzor, where the National Defense Militia demanded the Assad’s forces to allow them to cross the Euphrates River and take control of positions in the region. According to sources of Deir Ezzor 24, the National Defense confirmed that the SDF are collapsed in the face of the Turkish threatenings, and that gaining control of Deir Ezzor countryside is just a matter of time. Assad’s forces, in turn, rejected the demands of the national defense, arguing that they need the approval of the Russian forces or the operation would be very difficult. The sources pointed out that the meeting lasted for three hours and was attended by leaders of Assad’s forces and the military security branch, and that the Assad regime refused to carry out any operation without Moscow’s approval. About a month ago, Iranian-backed militias had made the same demand for the Russian forces in Deir Ezzor, but the latter refused to support any military operation in the region. Iran and the Assad regime are seeking to take advantage of the Turkish threatenings to occupy areas controlled by the SDF in Deir Ezzor countryside, but those demands have been met with Russian rejection so far. It is noteworthy that The SDF control large areas of Deir Ezzor province and have large front lines with Assad’s forces west of the Euphrates.

The Assad's forces send reinforcements to their points in eastern Euphrates

Deir Ezzor 24 network knew from sources that Assad's forces in Deir Ezzor sent reinforcements to Al-Salhiyah town north of Deir Ezzor this evening. According to the sources, five large buses full of fighters headed from the 137th Brigade towards Al-Salhiyah town, apparently to reinforce Assad's forces in the area. The Assad's forces entered Al-Salhiyah town at the same time the militias affiliated with the Assad's forces sent reinforcements to the points they control east of the Euphrates. This military alert on the Assad's forces and their militias' part in Deir Ezzor coincides with Turkey's battle east of the Euphrates against the Syrian democratic forces (SDF) in Raqqa countryside.

Daesh attacks an Iranian column while heading to Deir Ezzor

A number of elements of the so-called “affiliated” militias were killed and others injured in an attack by Daesh on a military column consisting of a number of buses that were transporting Iranian elements from Homs province to Deir Ezzor, Deir Ezzor 24 network correspondent said. The correspondent added: The attack took place , Wednesday in al-Sukhna area, and resulted in the death of about 20 members of the Iranian militias and Qaterji militia that was accompanying the column. It is worth mentioning that this attack came after the Qaterji Militia and Assad forces announced that they had secured the road, during the last period. It is indicated that this is the second attack of its kind by Daesh this month, which pushed the Assad’s forces to send reinforcements from the 5th and 11th Division to the badiyah of Deir Ezzor - al-Sukhna.

A new Iranian military militia is formed in Deir Ezzor

Local sources told Deir Ezzor 24 network that Assad's forces are forming a new military force in Deir Ezzor, under the name of the "Villages Army." According to the sources, the faction belongs to Iran, and Iranian military figures have already begun forming the militia through recruiting people at the Iranian Nasr Center on Port Said Street in Deir Ezzor. The sources noted that in the past few days, 100 volunteers have been recruited in the "Villages Army" militia, which are similar in its structure to the Russian-backed tribal army, where it consists of committees that will be deployed in Deir Ezzor countryside (east of the Euphrates) to be an alternative to Assad's forces in the region. Through this formation, Iran seeks to reduce the number of Assad's forces in Deir Ezzor countryside and replace the official military presence with unofficial one after threats from the international coalition, and also after Assad's forces and their militias were targeted in the region by warplanes several times.
