THE DETAILS OF THE ASSASSINATION THAT WAS CARRIED OUT AGAINST A LOCAL PUBLIC FIGURE IN THE EASTERN DEIR EZZOR COUNTRYSIDE

Two days ago, in Suweidan Jazeera town in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside, Ammash Bashir al-Ajaj was killed by unidentified assailants believed to be Daesh elements, according to a relative of the victim. The youth, who preferred not to be named, said that Ammash is an old man, a local public figure, works in the field of humanitarian relief and does not belong to any organization or party.

He added: “The method of the killing is similar to those carried out by Daesh cells in the area, where Ammash’s house was attacked at 1 p.m. on Thursday 2019-5-30 by four armed masked men who were riding two motorcycles, and after killing Ammash, they burned his car and escaped. It is noteworthy that Daesh cells are very active in the towns of Suweidan Jazeera and Darnaj and the neighboring villages, where more than 20 assassinations have been recorded in the area over the past two months.

AL-SUWAR TOWN LIVES IN TOTAL DARKNESS

The civilians in Al-Suwar town have been living in total darkness for almost a month as the giant electricity generators stopped working after the SDF had stopped providing their owners with subsidized diesel fuel, according to D24 correspondent. The SDF deprived Al-Suwar town of diesel fuel and moved the distribution center to Al-Sabha village. The price of one barrel of the subsidized diesel fuel is 12,000 Syrian pounds, 55 pounds per one litre, and it is good for using in electricity generators.

While the price of diesel in the areas of the burners (basic means to refine oil) is 30 thousand pounds for one barrel.

According to a number of people in the region, the subsidized diesel in Sadcup petrol station north of Deir Ezzor is still monopolised by some personalities, and is stolen on the open after depriving all the towns of it.

HEAVY CLASHES TAKE PLACE BETWEEN THE IRANIAN MILITIAS AND THE ASSAD'S INTELLIGENCE FORCES ... D24 OBTAINS THE DETAILS

Late last night, Sunday, heavy clashes broke out between Iranian-backed militias on one side and the national defense militia of the Assad regime and military security forces on the other in Al-Bukamal city in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside. D24 network correspondent confirmed that clashes involving the use of heavy weapons took place in al-Fayha area in the center of Abu Kamal city east of Deir Ezzor. According to the correspondent, the clashes spread to al-Maari street in the city, and also other clashes between the two sides took place near the al-Hajjanah station in Al-Bukamal city. The correspondent indicated that the clashes resulted in deaths and injuries on both sides, and the security was tightened near the medical centers where the wounded of the two parties were taken. It is indicated that the tension between the Iranian militias and the national defense and the Assad regime's intelligence services is not new, as the city has witnessed other clashes before, during which there have been deaths and injuries on the two sides. It is noteworthy that Iran and its militias dominate Al-Bukamal city, as it represents the link between its militias in Syria and those in Iraq.

DAESH ATTACKS THE ASSAD'S FORCES IN HRIBESHE NEAR DEIR EZZOR CITY

Today, Thursday, Daesh launched a violent attack on the Assad's forces' positions in the vicinity of Hribeshe area, southwest of Deir Ezzor city. Violent explosions rocked the area as a result of the crossfire and shelling between the two sides. On the other hand, the Assad regime's warplanes overflew the area, in order to prevent Daesh from advancing and to push it back. Daesh's attack comes just days after similar attacks on the positions of the Assad's forces and the Iranian militias in the badiyah of Deir Ezzor. In its recent military operations, Daesh has been using hit and run tactics against the Assad's forces and the militias supporting them. It is indicated that Daesh uses the badiyah as a springboard for launching military operations in Deir Ezzor province in eastern Syria.

TASHBIH (THUGGERY) TAKES PLACE IN DEIR EZZOR'S EXAMINATION CENTERS

Elements of the Assad forces stormed into one of the examination centers in Deir Ezzor against the teachers and the administrators' will, according to D24 network correspondent. Our correspondent also confirmed that elements of a security branch along with military elements, stormed into (Zaki al-Arsuzi) school in Al-Qusour neighborhood in Deir Ezzor city, to give the exam answers to officers and officials' children in the center. The head of the center and the administrators tried to stop them but they were pushed and insulted by the elements who entered forcibly. Also, a group of elements headed by the political security Branch head surrounded "Hassan al-Attrah" school, where they brought a specialist teacher to the exam room where the head's son was doing his exam to answer the questions for him against the administrators and the officials' will. It is indicated that Zaki al-Arsuze and Hassan al-Attrah centers have a number of officers and officials' children, and that the division 17th commander's son is a student in Zaki al-Arsuzi centre.

MORE THAN FIFTY IRANIANS PERFORM A PILGRIMAGE TO EIN AL-ALI SHRINE NEAR AL-MAYADEEN

Sources confirmed to D24 network that two days ago, more than 50 Iranians arrived in Al-Mayadeen city in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside. The sources said that the Iranians, who were civilians, arrived in Al-Mayadeen to visit Ein Al-Ali area, that Iran gives a great importance to. The sources confirmed that the so-called "the Iranian pilgrims" visited Ein al-Ali area, sought blessings at the spring in the area, and took a tour near it. The sources noted that the Iranian-backed Quds force along with the the Iranian Revolutionary Guards protected the Iranian delegation and accompanied it to Ein al-Ali area. The sources added that it was not known whether the delegation has left al-Mayadeen city or not, noting that the Iranian militias had tightened security around the area. It is worth mentioning that Iran had rehabilitated Ein al-Ali area near Al-Mayadeen city in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside, and deployed guards at the spring and the area. It is noteworthy that it was not the first time that Iranians visited Ein Al-Ali area in Deir Ezzor countryside, as the area had previously been visited by military and security commanders of Iranian forces.

A SHOOT-OUT AT A VEHICLE OF THE SDF DEFERS A TRIBAL MEETING THAT WAS HELD

TO SOLVE THE CRISIS BETWEEN ABU AL-NAYTAL AND AL-NAMLIYA

Sources confirmed to D24 network that the tribal elders in Deir Ezzor province gathered to resolve the dispute and defuse it between Al-Bujamel “al-Saleh al-Hamad” and al-Bufiryou tribes in the northern Deir Ezzor countryside. The meeting was held in the presence of all the tribal elders in the region, the sources said, noting that Al-Bujamel tribe confirmed that it had got justice and that the dispute was over and no one can sow discord. The meeting was attended by five guarantees of both tribes, the sources said, adding that the two tribes wanted to stop the bloodshed and the tensions between the two sides. During the meeting, a military humvee of the Syrian Democratic forces was fired at by unidentified assailants near the meeting place, the sources added. Because of that, the tribal elders in Deir Ezzor province decided to postpone the meeting that was held to stop the tension between the people of Abu al-Naytal village and the people of Al-Namliya village in the northern Deir Ezzor countryside. People of both villages expressed their surprise at the shooting incident that targeted a military vehicle of the SDF at a time people and elders met to resolve the crisis. It is noteworthy that the Syrian democratic forces have not intervened to resolve the crisis between the two villages, adding to which, local sources confirmed that elements from the SDF participated in shelling Abu al-Naytal village north of Deir Ezzor with mortar shells.

THE NATIONAL DEFENSE MILITIA BURNS HOUSES IN AL-MAYADEEN EAST OF DEIR EZZOR

Last night, Tuesday, groups of the national defense militia burned houses and shops in al-Mayadeen city in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside. According to sources of D24 network, elements of the national defence militia have burnt some of the houses whose owners live outside the Assad regime-controlled areas. The sources indicated that the reason for burning the houses and the shops is unknown, but it is likely to be an act of retaliation. The sources pointed out that al-Mayadeen city has no fire brigades at all and that the Assad regime refused to intervene to put out the fires. The sources also noted that the elements who burned the houses are some of those who have recently joined the National defence Militia. It is indicated that the Assad regime and Iranian militias took control of the entire city of Mayadeen in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside in late 2017 following clashes with Daesh.

THE COALITION CARRIES OUT A LANDING OPERATION IN DIBAN EAST OF DEIR EZZOR

This morning, Thursday, the international coalition forces carried out a landing operation in Diban town in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside. Three helicopters and a jet of the international coalition participated in the landing, which was accompanied by ground forces of the Syrian Democratic forces. A military convoy and a reconnaissance drone were involved in the operation, amid a large military deployment in the area. The international coalition called on the people of Diban town east of Deir Ezzor to stay inside their homes and not to leave them under any circumstances during the operation that targeted the house of Ahmed al-Shawish, whom the Coalition called upon over loudspeakers to surrender himself. The international coalition also arrested a number of young men during the operation carried out in Diban town in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside, without telling them the reasons for their arrest. It is noteworthy that the international coalition has carried out several landings in the eastern Deir Ezzor countryside, during which it arrested whom it said were Daesh cells and elements.
