The command of the Revolutionary Guards militia imposes the Shiite call to prayer in Deir Ezzor

An exclusive source told DeirEzzor24 network that the command of the Iranian Revolutionary Guards militia imposed the Shiite call to prayer, which includes the phrase (live on good work) in all the headquarters of its militias far from populated areas

Our correspondent added that the imposition of the Shiite call to prayer by the command of the Revolutionary Guard militia came on all the headquarters of the Iranian militias far from the residential communities, such as the Ayash headquarters, the Abu al-Fadl al-Abbas camp, the armaments depots, the headquarters of the T2 station and Maizila in the Al-Bukamal countryside

It is worth noting that this step comes after attempts to raise the Shiite call to prayer in several populated areas in Deir Ezzor, which were met with disapproval by the people for changing the call to prayer

The commander of the Revolutionary Guards militia in Deir Ezzor refuses to return the homes of the children of a well-known family

An exclusive source told DeirEzzor24 network that the commander-in-chief of the Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps in Deir Ezzor called "Haj Kamil" rejected the request of a representative of one of the Deir Ezzor families to return their homes controlled by the militia. The source added that "Kamil" rejected a request from a representative of a number of the members of the Knamah family in Deir Ezzor, to return their homes in the Villa neighborhood in Deir Ezzor, which is controlled by the Iranian Revolutionary Guards militia, after meeting him at Nasr headquarters (the center of the Directorate of Education on Port Said Street). He confirmed that the number of houses is three: a "villa" house for businessman "Mazen Al-Kanamah", another "villa" house by the doctor "Ahmed Kanamah" and a third by "Mamoun Daoud Al-Kanamah", where "Kamil" stipulated the presence of the owners of the houses in person to hand it over to them. The Iranian Revolutionary Guards militia seized dozens of large houses and apartments in Deir Ezzor province, under the pretext of the absence of their people or their opposition to the Assad regime.

The Revolutionary Guards militia pays a financial increase to its local Shiite militia members in Deir Ezzor

An exclusive source told DeirEzzor24 network that the leadership of the Iranian Revolutionary Guards militia in Deir Ezzor, represented by the so-called "Hajj Kamil," instructed the Nasr Center's finances to raise the salaries of militia members. The source added, that the increase that will be disbursed is estimated at 30 thousand Syrian pounds, to be added to the salaries of the Shiite local elements in the Iranian Revolutionary Guards militia, and all the Shiite local elements in the militias affiliated with it, in addition to granting them different privileges from the non Shiite elements. This increase comes as a form of promoting Shiism, and attracting new numbers of volunteers to the ranks of the Revolutionary Guards militia in Deir Ezzor to convert to the Shiite sect.

Injuries in an armed clash in the town of Al-Jafra in the east of Deir Ezzor

A young woman was injured and another young man was injured, in a quarrel that developed into an armed clash between two families in the town of Al-Jufra, east of Deir Ezzor, according to the orrespondent of Deir Ezzor 24 network. Our correspondent said that a gunfight broke out in the town of Al-Jufra, yesterday evening, between the Al-Ghadban family and another family, during which machine guns and hand grenades were used. He added that the reason for the clash was a love story between a young man and a girl and the opposition of her family to the young man, which led to a clash between the girl's brother and the young man, which developed into a clash between the two families. Weapons are widely spread in the town of Al-Jafra, due to the arming of its young men by the Assad regime since the first days of the revolution, and their inclusion in the various militias
