a military police patrol arrested two members of the National , Defense Militia at its checkpoint stationed at Al-Sukaria roundabout, west of the city of Al-Bukamal, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 network He mentioned that the arrest of the two men came on charges of smuggling tobacco from Iraq to DeirEzzor province in a car they were traveling in. he added that the car's load of tobacco was estimated at 15 million Syrian pounds. The command of the National Defense Militia tried to release the two men after their detention but failed, and the two elements and tobacco are still in the hands of the military police

Fear runs through the hearts of Iranian militia members in Deir Ezzor

DeirEzzor24 network learned from an exclusive source that 3 members of the Al-Hussein Brigades group affiliated with the Iranian Revolutionary Guards militia defected in the town of Ayash, west of Deir Ezzor. According to the source, the three elements defected due to their extreme fear of repeated targeting of Iranian militia positions, and they arrived in SDF-controlled areas in Deir Ezzor. The area from which the elements defected, was subjected to shelling by the coalition about a week ago, targeting the strategic Ayash warehouses

A severe heat wave sweeps Deir Ezzor, leaving harsh conditions

The temperature has highly increased in Deir Ezzor province, reaching 45 degrees Celsius, topping the list of Syrian provinces with temperatures. In light of this increase in temperature, the region is witnessing a great demand by the people to buy ice bricks, which formed a huge crowding of the ice-making factories, in addition to the high prices of it, exceeding 5,000 Syrian pounds per one brick. The severe heat wave also left dozens of sunstroke injuries, accompanied by fainting and vomiting in some cases. It should be noted that the intense heat wave sweeping the region comes with an almost complete absence of electricity from all areas of Deir Ezzor, especially those under the control of the Syrian Democratic Forces

After the recent strikes, the Revolutionary Guards militia issued several decisions in Deir Ezzor

DeirEzzor24 network learned from an exclusive source that the command of the Iranian Revolutionary Guards militia has issued decisions to reduce the number of its local members. The source added that the militia issued a package of internal decisions related to giving priority to retaining volunteers for those who converted to the Shiite sect, and removing local elements from its sensitive centers such as arms depots and so on. It is worth noting that these decisions came after the strikes on warehouses and sites of the Iranian Revolutionary Guards militia in Deir Ezzor last week

The collapsed buildings in Deir Ezzor are tickling bombs in front of the residents

The collapsed buildings in the neighborhoods of Deir Ezzor pose a real danger to the lives of civilians residing in those residential neighborhoods. Dozens of buildings scattered among the city's neighborhoods are liable to fall at any moment, as a result of the shelling they were subjected to by Assad's forces and Russian air forces, and their danger still exists until now. One of these buildings is located in the Al-Hamidiyah neighborhood near the first girls' schools and Khadija Al-Kubra. It began to collapse more than a year ago, but it has not fallen yet, despite the repeated demands of the residents of the area from the city's municipality to solve the problem, but it did not respond, forcing the people to close The street that contains the building on both sides. Falling buildings are time bombs, it is not known when they will fall and to whom, despite this, the Assad regime turns its face away from this danger, and does not care about the safety and lives of people, which has always called them to return to the homes that it destroyed and made its highest

Militias affiliated with the Revolutionary Guards militia in Deir Ezzor demobilize hundreds of members

Deir Ezzor Network correspondent said that the militias affiliated with the Iranian Revolutionary Guards militia have dismissed a large number of local members. Our correspondent added that some militias dismissed more than half of the elements and returned them to their plots to which they belong to Assad's forces. He pointed out that the Al-Hussein Brigades militia in "Ayash", west of Deir Ezzor, dismissed 38 out of 60 members and 12 others with administrative tasks, while the Al-Baqir Brigade militia in Al-Mayadin dismissed approximately 50% of its members, and the Tribal Brigade militia headed by Nawaf Al-Bashir dismissed 60% of its members. Their number is 550 members in the T2 station and the town of Al-Salihiya in the Al-Bukamal countryside, while the security of the Revolutionary Guards militia in Al-Mayadin and Al-Bukamal, led by (Abu Ayyub from Hatla), separated approximately 60% of the members, The dismissed elements will return to the battalions and military units that they were assigned to when they conduct reconciliation and settlement with the Assad regime

Tools of torture and ammunition in al-Hol camp belong to Daesh

The General Security of the SDF announced that it had found torture tools used by ISIS members detained in al-Hol camp in the Hasaka countryside, during the "security and humanity" campaign carried out by the SDF in the camp 11 days ago. According to the SDF announcement, the search operations resulted in finding torture and killing tools that were used by cell members to kill and torture, and the owner of the tent in which these tools were seized was arrested. These tools were professionally hidden underground, and 388 were found. A bullet for a Kalashnikov was hidden under the dirt, in addition to a military bag that was located in one of the tents. Two days ago, SDF announced that during the "security and humanity" campaign, it found the Yazidi girl "Wafa Abbas Ali" in one of the tents of al-Hol camp, who had been kidnapped by Daesh, and then hid in the camp for fear of being punished by her family. The SDF launched the "Humanity and Security" campaign in Al-Hol camp, on the 25th of last August, to pursue ISIS sleeper cells, and to blow up ISIS' attempts to organize itself inside the camp, according to what it announced. It is worth noting that at least 44 people, including 14 women, were killed this year in al-Hol camp in al-Hasakah countryside, which includes internal refugees and families of Daesh members
