A U.A.E-backed militia is established from tribal elements in Deir Ezzor

With Emirati funding, the so-called "Nawaf al-Bashir" began to attract new members from the people of Deir Ezzor province to form a new militia with a tribal character, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. Our correspondent said that the new militia will be under the mission of a joint Syrian-Emirati defense under the name of the clans as well, and under the leadership and supervision of "Nawaf al-Bashir." He added that those wanted to join this militia will range in age from 18 to 40 years, wanted for compulsory or reserve service or civilian volunteers, with a monthly wage of $300. The militia began to receive those wishing to volunteer, amid a large turnout in the northern countryside of Deir Ezzor, through delegates, most of whom were mayors, notables, and shabiha, who had previously been recruited by the Iranian Revolutionary Guards and al-Qaterji.

Iranian militias smuggle Deir Ezzor truffles

Deir Ezzor 24 network correspondent said that the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia has recently started transporting truffles from Deir Ezzor to Iraq. He added that the militia mocked merchants affiliated with it to buy truffles from merchants in the city of Deir Ezzor and its countryside through brokers who follow them by enticement or intimidation so that these quantities are collected in the city of Al-Bukamal and entered into Iraq through the Al-Hashd crossing. The truffle season in Deir Ezzor governorate is one of the very special seasons, to the extent that quantities are now being exported to the rest of the governorates, and from there to Arab countries.

A mass kidnapping in the eastern countryside of Deir Ezzor

Unidentified gunmen kidnapped 7 shepherds and their herd from the desert of the city of Sabikhan in the eastern countryside of Deir Ezzor, yesterday morning, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. Our correspondent said that the kidnapped are (Ibn Ismail al-Nasser al-Shafi, two sons of Awad Khudair al-Abbar, Ibn Mikhlif al-Tawata, and the children of Sheikh al-Mishaal). He added that the kidnappers consisted of 11 armed men dressed in Afghani clothes, traveling in a van with 5 motorcycles. It is worth mentioning that the kidnappers began to release the abductees at around five in the evening, and kept 3 of them. After a few hours, the sheep were found in the Al-Duwair desert, east of Deir Ezzor, and more than 110 sheep were stolen from them.

An increase in the number of volunteers in Qaterji militia in Deir Ezzor

DeirEzzor24 Network has learned of the affiliation of more than 100 new members to the Village Guard militia affiliated with Al-Qaterji at the recently established point in the town of Khasham, east of Deir Ezzor, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. He said that most of the new recruits to the militia are from the towns of Khasham, Al-Tabia and the neighboring villages, where the volunteers of the village guards are not bound by military uniforms and have rather short shifts, and the volunteers are not required to have any age-related clauses. Affiliation with the al-Qaterji militia, or what is known as the special missions, has become very popular in the countryside of Deir Ezzor, recently.

Large sums imposed by the Fourth Division on car owners in Deir Ezzor as customs fees

The customs fees imposed by the fourth Division on the entry of cars from the areas controlled by the SDF to the areas controlled by the Assad regime in Deir Ezzor amounted to more than 3 million Syrian pounds, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. He said that the imposition of customs duties takes place in two locations, the first in the town of Hawajj Dhiab in the western countryside of Deir Ezzor, and the second in the city of Al-Mayadeen in the eastern countryside of Deir Ezzor, and payment is made at the office of the fourth Division at the Al-Baloum roundabout. ther sums of money are added to these fees, such as an amount of one million pounds for the ferry fare and half a million for the checkpoints of the Military Security and the Republican Guard.

Iranian militias conduct a new attack on the Global Coalition base in Deir Ezzor

Iranian militias targeted the Conico gas base, east of Deir Ezzor, this evening, utilizing rockets, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. He said that the coalition forces shot down an Iranian drone that was flying over the base at the Conico gas plant. He added that warplanes believed to be affiliated with the coalition conducted air strikes on Iranian positions in the town of Hatla, north of Deir Ezzor, in response to the militia's targeting of Conico base with rockets. The Iranian militias have repeatedly targeted the bases of the coalition in Deir Ezzor, since the beginning of this year, on more than one occasion, to receive responses from the coalition on the sites of the Iranian militias in Deir Ezzor.

Iranian militias recruit a new group of intellectuals in Deir Ezzor

Several days ago, the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia announced the opening of the door to recruitment for holders of university degrees and industrial institutes in Deir Ezzor, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. He said that the militia seeks to attract intellectuals as a gesture, the first of its kind, to win over intellectuals and graduates of institutes and universities, with high salaries of up to one and a half million Syrian pounds, provided that registration takes place in human resources at Nasr headquarters near the Civil Defense in Deir Ezzor. According to a private source, the new volunteers will be appointed to administrative positions, while the real goal of these appointments is to gain the largest number of segments of society in Deir Ezzor, including children, intellectuals, and notables, to spread the policy of Shiism in the region. The Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia is attracting this group from Deir Ezzor society, after targeting the children and youth groups previously

A child has been kidnapped by a militiaman in Deir Ezzor

Yesterday evening, a 10-year-old girl was kidnapped from the Jubailah neighborhood by a member of the National Defense Militia, according to DeirEzzor24 network correspondent. He said that the kidnapper is called "Hamza Al-Zabrawi", one of the most famous users of hashish and H-Bose, and the kidnapping took place in cooperation with a person called "Qasim" from Al-Joura Medicine, and he fled with the child to an unknown destination. This kidnapping incident was preceded by an attempt to kidnap a child from Harabish neighborhood by one of the elements of "Ahmed al-Lajj" Abu Khawla.

An insect strikes the wheat crop in the town of eastern Deir Ezzor

Recently, an insect called "Sona" has spread to wheat crops in the town of Tabiya Shamiya in the eastern countryside of Deir Ezzor, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. He said that the spread of this insect came as a result of high humidity and warm weather, and was accompanied by demands from farmers to the Directorate of Agriculture in areas controlled by the Assad regime to provide insecticides to protect crops. Agricultural crops in Deir Ezzor have suffered in the past years from drought and lack of irrigation water, and the current season is heavy rain compared to previous seasons.

The Military Security in Al-Bukamal rents shops which they previously confiscated from civilians

DeirEzzor24 network correspondent said that the military security in the city of Al-Bukamal, east of Deir Ezzor, began renting out a number of shops that were previously confiscated in the city market. He added that some of the shops that the military security began to invest in and rent are located on the main streets of the city of Al-Bukamal. Military Security uses the pretext that the owners of these shops are opponents of the Assad regime who are currently living outside the country.

Without an official decision, traders in Deir Ezzor stop dealing in certain money papers

The correspondent of Deir Ezzor 24 Network said that the shops and markets of the areas controlled by the Assad regime in Deir Ezzor Governorate have stopped dealing with securities in the denominations of 100 and 200 Syrian pounds, despite the absence of any decision to that effect. He added that most shops do not accept this currency and only sell in denominations of 500 SP and above, while the internal transport bus remains the only one that accepts the denomination of 200 SP.

Russian forces close a smuggling corridor east of Deir Ezzor

Russian forces closed the smuggling corridor linking the town of Tabiya Jazira, east of Deir Ezzor, which is under the control of the Russian militias, and the town of Jadeed Akidat, which is under the control of the SDF, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. Our correspondent said that the reason for closing the corridor is the recent clashes that took place in the town of Al-Tabiya a few days ago, in which a soldier from the fifth Corps and another from the SDF were killed. He added that the aforementioned corridor is located along the Euphrates River and was used by the Syrian officers, through which sugar, diesel fuel, gasoline and fertilizers are transported in limited quantities. The corridor was closed by the Second Battalion of the fifth Corps, by order of the Brigade Command, in the town of Hatla, north of Deir Ezzor.

Unidentified people threaten people from Deir Ezzor in the name of Daesh

Unidentified persons hung a list in the name of ISIS on the Umm Al-Qura Mosque in the town of Khasham, which is under the control of the Assad regime, east of Deir Ezzor, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. Our correspondent said that the list included a threat to ten names from the town's residents on charges of writing reports and causing harm to Muslims, and he knew of them (Jamil Al-Suda and Mahmoud Al-Tais). A group of residents questioned the validity of the list and considered that those people were the ones who organized that list in the name of the organization and spread rumors of assassination attempts against them in order to obtain security gains in the intelligence branches in Deir Ezzor. The list that was suspended in the name of Daesh does not bear any official seal of the organization, which raises doubts about its credibility.

IRGC militia commanders meet in Deir Ezzor

a meeting was held for a group of so-called "pilgrims" of the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia, during which a dinner feast was held at Hajj fadel's resting place in the Qusour neighborhood of Deir Ezzor, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. He mentioned that those gathered were led by the so-called "Haj Kamil," the commander-in-chief of the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia in Deir Ezzor, and the so-called "Haj Abu Zainab," the Afghani, the commander of the fatemiyoun militia, and "Haj Mustafa," the security commander in Deir Ezzor province. The aim of the meeting is to discuss some security issues related to the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia in Deir Ezzor.

Sudden withdrawal of a Russian battalion from Deir Ezzor

The Russian battalion responsible for protecting the Russian floating bridge that connects the two banks of the Euphrates River, east of Deir Ezzor, has been handed over to a battalion in the 17th Infantry Division of Assad's forces, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. He said that the battalion that was responsible for the bridge has been transferred to the city of Qamishli, which is the first significant Russian withdrawal from Deir Ezzor. It withdrew all heavy equipment, including artillery, tanks and BMB vehicles. The Russian forces began constructing the first military bridge on the Euphrates River to cross the Wagner militia towards the areas east of the Euphrates on September 28, 2017, and it was replaced several times as a result of the flooding of the Euphrates River until it took its final floating shape in mid-2019.

A new Russian officer has been appointed in Deir Ezzor

Russian Reconciliation Center and the fifth Corps Command at their headquarters in the town of Hatla, northeast of Deir Ezzor, a week ago, coming from the Hmeimim base, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. The new Russian officer began his new appointment in Deir Ezzor, by distributing aid to a number of families in the town of Tabiya Jazira, east of Deir Ezzor. The Russian military system in the eastern region requires changing the officer appointed in Deir Ezzor every three months
