Russian and Assad forces are on high alert because of a DeirEzzor24 online post

The Military Security Branch carried out an intensive investigation campaign, which was accompanied by a meeting of the Russian Reconciliation Center in the town of Hatla, northeast of Deir Ezzor, due to a publication by DeirEzzor24 Network, according to our reporter. Our reporter said that the meeting included the notables of the region, and the investigation included a video documenting the distribution of expired foodstuffs that were recently distributed in the region by the Russians. DeirEzzor24 network is following the distribution of food baskets by the Russians, which are often in short supply, in addition to the expiry date

The governor of Deir Ezzor gives the farmers of Al-Bukamal one week

The governor of Deir Ezzor, "Fadel Al-Najjar," gave the residents of the city of Al-Bukamal, east of Deir Ezzor, a week to market wheat for this year's 2023 season, according to a reporter of DeirEzzor24 Network. Our reporter said that this deadline by the governor of Deir Ezzor came as a result of the poor supplies of the entire Al-Bukamal region for wheat. The Iranian militias are one of the reasons for the poor supply of Albukamal wheat, as they control the area and largely monopolize the wheat crops in Al-Bukamal.

"Pilgrims" buses return to Syria once again

Buses carrying Iraqi pilgrims entered Syria through the al-Qaim gate in the Al-Bukamal countryside, east of Deir Ezzor, after the end of the blessed Eid al-Adha period, according to a reporter of DeirEzzor24 Network. Our correspondent said that most of the buses enter at night in groups (more than 5 buses) and do not go to the international road as it was in the past for fear of attacks targeting them, but rather take the public road within villages and towns. Visitors of both Iranian and Iraqi nationalities visit Syria from time to time for pilgrimage to holy sites according to the Shiite sect.

Slow passports have been suspended in Syria for the second time

The Immigration and Passports Department of the Assad regime suspended regular (slow) passports for the second time, for a period of forty days last night, according to the decision of the Ministry of Interior. The suspension of the process of issuing the second passport comes after the first time, which lasted for two months, to provide an opportunity for urgent passports, which generate millions of pounds, to be seized. The reservation of passports via the electronic platform is carried out in two ways, the first is slow, exceeding 4 months, except for postponement, at a cost of 200,000 pounds, and the second is urgent, within a period not exceeding a week, at an amount of one million and five thousand pounds. The price of urgent passport issuance in Deir Ezzor is 4 million Syrian pounds, with the manipulation of the Immigration Department and the division of passport numbers between the provincial police chief and the leaders of the security branches.

The Coalition and SDF remove mines from the contact lines in the north of Deir Ezzor

Under the direct supervision of the American forces, the SDF began removing mines extending from the town of Tabiya Jazirah to the Naft Tourist Club Bridge near the roundabout 7 km north of Deir Ezzor, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzo24 Network. Our reporter said that the SDF began removing mines with a huge minesweeper, in addition to filling in the trench parallel to the train tracks. It is noteworthy that the area from which the SDF began removing mines is the first line of contact between the areas controlled by the International Coalition and SDF on the one hand, and the Russian forces, Assad's forces and Iranian militias on the other hand, northeast of Deir Ezzor

DeirEzzor24 meets the swimmer Ibrahim Al-Hussein to follow up on his latest posts

DeirEzzor24 Network met with the Syrian swimmer, "Ibrahim Al-Hussein," from the city of Deir Ezzor, to talk about the last world championship in which he participated in Spain, and the following was the conversation. Al-Hussein began his speech by saying: "I achieved fourth place in the World Cup championship that was held in the Spanish city of Icaronia last week, with the participation of 80 competitors." He added, "The race is divided into three stages, the first in the field of swimming, in which I excelled, and I achieved second place, seconds behind the first-place finisher, and then we proceeded to the second stage of the race, which is cycling, and I also achieved second place, to reach the third and final stage, which is running, and in it I made a mistake." For a minute on the track after I lost the right way to score fourth, also seconds away from the third-place finisher. Al-Hussein concluded that he will continue training and preparations to participate in the upcoming tournaments and achieve better numbers and results.

Russian forces hand over counterfeit dollars to their elements in Deir Ezzor

DeirEzzor24 network correspondent said that the Fifth Corps of the Russian forces handed over to its members in Deir Ezzor this month fake dollars that had been "frozen" for nearly a week. Our correspondent added that the officers received $100 for each member after recently decreasing the monthly wage by $50. The officers were surprised when the exchange shops refused to exchange these dollars under the pretext that they were forged and "frozen" while some of the officers were able to exchange them for Syrian pounds in shops that buy dollars surreptitiously. The Russian forces recently distributed expired food aid in the countryside of Deir Ezzor, as documented by the DeirEzzor24 network

SDF vehicles enter Hatla, northeast of Deir Ezzor, and an emergency meeting is held

3 SDF cars entered the headquarters of the Russian forces in the town of Hatla, northeast of Deir Ezzor, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. Our correspondent said that the cars crossed the Salhiya checkpoint at exactly 8:00 pm last night, carrying leaders, it was not known if they were from the coalition or from the SDF. He added that a two-hour meeting was held, the content of which was not known or what was discussed during it, including conversations or negotiations. This meeting coincided with mobilizations by both sides at the points of contact in northeastern Deir Ezzor, and rumors spread about an imminent coalition and SDF attack on Assad's forces.

Al-Bashir is knocking on the doors of the western countryside of Deir Ezzor to recruit volunteers

The so-called "Nawaf Al-Bashir" opened the door for affiliation with the militia he heads, from all groups and ages to support and strengthen the military points in the seven villages, in the northern countryside of Deir Ezzor, according to the correspondent of DeirEzzor24 Network. He said that "Al-Bashir" targeted the people of the villages and towns of the western countryside of Deir Ezzor, "east of the Euphrates", where the largest expansion of the Baggara tribe is, and one of its sheikhs is considered. He added that so far, no response to Bashir has been noticed from the people of those areas. Al-Bashir works for the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia, in addition to the 4th Division of Assad's forces through his son Laith (Abu Al-Karrar), who supervises the smuggling of oil derivatives and other materials.
