American officials meet with notables from Deir Ezzor and SDF officials in northeastern Syria

US Deputy Assistant Secretary of State, Ethan Goldrich, and OIR Operation Commander Major. Joe Vowell met in northeastern Syria with the Syrian Democratic Forces, the Syrian Democratic Council, and tribal leaders from Deir Ezzor. According to the website of the US Embassy in Syria, the parties of the meeting agreed on the importance of addressing the grievances of the local population in Deir Ezzor and the dangers of outsiders interfering in the area. The participants stressed "the need to avoid civilian deaths and casualties, and the need for de-escalation of violence as soon as possible." Both Goldrich and Major General Vowell stressed the importance of the strong American partnership with the Syrian Democratic Forces in efforts to defeat Daesh. The Global Coalition announced, at dawn today, in a written statement, the necessity of ending the clashes in Deir Ezzor, resorting to the Sunni solution, and standing by and supporting the SDF.

The Assad regime released the director of education in Deir Ezzor after mediation intervention

The Assad regime released the director of education in Deir Ezzor, "Jassem Al-Frej," after investigations that included corruption charges in Damascus, according to a Deir Ezzor 24 network reporter. Our reporter indicated that after the intervention of Assad regime figures, including Al-Frej's acquaintances and relatives, he was acquitted, and the administration's accountant, Muhammad Al-Dari'i, was held responsible for corruption, who fled outside the Assad regime's areas of control, taking hundreds of millions with him. The decision to terminate the assignment of "Al-Farej" was withdrawn, and he is now at the helm of his work as director of education in Deir Ezzo

The regime security branches are now under a state of alert because of the ongoing clashes in the east of the Euphrates

The regime security branches have been under a state of alert in Deir Ezzor city since yesterday, as they deployed eight joint patrols at the Dalah roundabout, Al-Muwazafine, Al-Halwin, Al-Jazz, Al-Kora Al-Ardiyah, as well as the entrances of the city, according to a reporter of DeirEzzor24. According to our reporter, the joint patrols are conducting thorough searches and detaining anyone they suspect. He pointed out that military security checkpoints prevent residents of the eastern countryside of Deir Ezzor (east of the Euphrates) from entering the city of Deir Ezzor. The river crossings in the western countryside of Deir Ezzor are operating normally, while they are completely stopped in the north and east of the province.

Fuel prices are now sky-high in Deir Ezzor because of recent developments in the east of the Euphrates

The prices of unofficial fuels (which are produced by primitive oil burners) have witnessed an extreme increase recently in regime-held areas in Deir Ezzor province, according to a reporter of DeirEzzor24. According to our reporter, the reason behind the increase is the cessation of the smuggling of petroleum derivatives from SDF-held areas due to the ongoing clashes between tribal fighters and the SDF. He pointed out that a liter of gasoline reached 8,000 Syrian pounds, an increase of more than double the old price, and the price of a liter of diesel reached 7,000 Syrian pounds, an increase of more than double. The continuous rise in fuel prices has paralyzed the movement of vehicles in the city of Deir Ezzor and its countryside, in addition to causing an increase in the prices of materials after the increase in transportation costs

An increase in the allocations for a military bakery in Deir Ezzor at the expense of the allocations of other bakeries

The municipality of Deir Ezzor has increased the allocations for the military "Al-Jazz" bakery in the city of flour at the expense of the share of the rest of the bakeries, according to a reporter of DeirEzzor24. Our correspondent said that the increase in the allocations for the jazz oven and the decrease in the allocations for other bakeries coincides with a decrease in the quantity of bread and its poor quality, as the family's allocations do not exceed 5 bundles per week, which are inedible in most cases. The gas oven is prohibited for the people of Deir Ezzor, as it is reserved for members of the Assad forces and Iranian officials and militias

Iranian militia commander vows to cross the Euphrates and fight the Global Coalition in Deir Ezzor

A militia commander of the 47th Regiment, called Abu Issa al-Mashhadani, has vowed to cross into the SDF-controlled areas in Deir Ezzor east of the Euphrates, according to a reporter of DeirEzzor24. According to the reporter, the commander of the IRGC-affiliated militia said that he would cross the Euphrates River to SDF-held territory so as to assist the local population over there, saying that he had already deployed a convoy of several military vehicles near the regiment HQs for this purpose. Al-Mashhadani heads the militia of the 47th Regiment, which operates under the command of the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia in the city of Al-Bukamal and its countryside, east of Deir Ezzor

The Assad regime arrested displaced young men who fled the fighting in the east of the Euphrates

Assad's forces arrested a number of young men who were displaced from the SDF areas in Deir Ezzor because of the recent fighting, according to a local reporter of DeirEzzor24. According to the reporter, the young men were arrested by the State Security Branch and were taken to the branch's headquarters in Al-Vilat neighborhood in the city of Deir Ezzor. They all come from the eastern countryside of Deir Ezzor. He added that they were arrested on charges of affiliation with the FSA in the early years of the revolution. In recent days, the cities and villages of the eastern countryside of Deir Ezzor witnessed the displacement of hundreds of people from areas controlled by the SDF to areas controlled by the Assad regime in Deir Ezzor, as a result of the battles that took place in the region between the SDF and tribal fighters.

Iran is seeking to establish a tribal militia in Deir Ezzor

A preparatory meeting was held during the past two days between Iranian and local figures in Deir Ezzor, with the aim of forming a new militia, according to private sources that told DeirEzzor24. According to the sources, the meeting included commanders from the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia, Nawaf al-Bashir, and militia commanders in Hatlah, adding that the meeting discussed the formation of a new militia in the areas under the control of Assad's forces in Deir Ezzor "east of the Euphrates," under the name "The Hashemite Tribes Regiment." The new militia that the Iranian militias are seeking to form has a tribal character, after the recent clash between the SDF and the tribes of Deir Ezzor.

Members of the Qarbat tribe are fleeing from SDF-held areas towards regime-held territory in Deir Ezzor

The past few days witnessed the exodus of a number of families of what are known locally as Al-Qarbat, who lived in the villages and towns of the Deir Ezzor countryside, “east of the Euphrates,” towards the areas controlled by the Assad regime, according to what was reported by a DeirEzzor24 network reporter. Our reporter also said that the largest percentage of displaced Carbats settled in the seven villages controlled by Assad forces and Iranian and Russian militias. A group of Qarbat issued a statement, during the fighting between the tribes and the SDF, under the name of the “Qarbat Clan,” in which it announced the fight with the tribes of Deir Ezzor against the SDF.

Iranian militias deploy weapons and equipment to their HQs in the western Deir Ezzor countryside

Closed trucks loaded with weapons and ammunition arrived yesterday in the western Deir al-Zor countryside from Iraq, according to a private source for the DeirEzzor24 network. The source stated that the shipment belongs to the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia and was distributed to its militia headquarters in the western countryside, such as the Fatemiyoun militia, Abu al-Fadl al-Abbas camp, and Ayash warehouses. The trucks entered the border as vegetable transport trucks, accompanied by pickup trucks belonging to the Lebanese Hezbollah militia

A Child from Deir Ezzor Shows Football Talent in Germany, with Hopes of Reaching Madrid

A child from Deir Ezzor has made a name for himself as one of the talents who have risen to prominence in German football, and his name is now associated with the academies of the global Real Madrid club. The child, Fajr Hussam Al-Jassim, comes from the town of Mohassin in eastern Deir Ezzor and has been a refugee in Germany for eight years. DeirEzzor24 network met with Fajr Al-Jassim's father, who shared the following: Mr. Hussam Al-Jassim said, 'We arrived in Germany in 2015, and Fajr was three years old at the time. We settled in the city of Bayern, and after one year, Fajr joined a local team.' He added, 'We discovered Fajr's talent by chance. He entered kindergarten at the age of three and a half, and he had difficulty communicating with his peers due to language and shyness. So, I suggested to his teacher that we involve him in a team sport to improve his language skills. Fajr then joined a local team in a village in Bayern, and that's where his talent started to shine. Since then, he has been proving himself and showcasing his football talent. He moved to several teams and participated in numerous tournaments until he reached the age of ten. At that point, we received two offers to recruit Fajr, one from Leipzig Academy and the other from Dortmund Academy, and we chose Dortmund!' Regarding the association of the child Fajr's name with Real Madrid Academy, Mr. Hussam, Fajr's father, said: 'About a year ago, Fajr's private coach, Mr. Dilawar Khalil, suggested that I register Fajr with one of the Real Madrid academies in Germany due to his talent and quality in football. Indeed, I registered him with the Real Madrid Academy in the German city of Mulheim. After a while, we received an invitation for Fajr to participate in the Real Madrid Academy's selection tournament in Germany, to choose representatives from Real Madrid academies in Germany. Fajr participated in the finals held in Hanover, and after a period, we received an invitation for Fajr to travel to Madrid as a representative of the Real Madrid Academy team in Germany, as part of a tournament organized by Real Madrid for its academies in different countries. Now, we are completing the required paperwork for the trip to Madrid.'

Exclusive: One of the Iranian militia commanders has been injured and admitted to intensive care

DeirEzzor24 network has learned from a reliable source about the injury of a man known as 'Al-Haj Mortada Abbas' with a heart muscle infarction two days ago, and he was admitted to the military hospital in Deir Ezzor in critical condition. The source stated that 'Mortada' is still in the intensive care unit at the military hospital in Deir Ezzor, and his health condition is critical. 'Al-Haj Mortada' is of Iranian nationality and holds a leadership position in the 'Abu al-Fadl al-Abbas' camp affiliated with the Iranian Revolutionary Guard militia in the town of Ayash west of Deir Ezzor
