SDF confiscates a shipment of wheat prepared for smuggling to areas controlled by the Assad regime in Deir Ezzor

The SDF confiscated two “Inter” trucks loaded with wheat that were heading towards Assad regime-controlled areas from the Zaghir Jazira town crossing in the western countryside of Deir Ezzor, according to a DeirEzzor24 network correspondent. Our correspondent said that the SDF stopped a number of trucks at river crossings loaded with wheat in the eastern countryside of Deir Ezzor. He pointed out that the SDF's goal in cutting off wheat smuggling routes to the Assad regime is to limit its supplies to the (Al-Qaterji-SDF) contract, which stipulates the purchase of a quantity of more than one million tons, and according to the available quantity at a price of $550 per ton. It is worth noting that the Autonomous Administration had approved the price of wheat at 31 cents per kilo, or $310 per ton, subject to the grading system

Daesh conduct an attack on a militia affiliated with the Revolutionary Guard militia in the, east of Deir Ezzor

Three members of the Mu'ayzila group, affiliated with the tribal militia of the Revolutionary Guard militia, were missing after an attack by unknown persons believed to be from ISIS at midnight last night, according to what a Deir Ezzor 24 network correspondent reported. Our correspondent said that the attack also resulted in the injury of approximately 10 members who were taken to the hospital in the town of Salhiya in the Albukamal countryside, in addition to burning two militia cars. He added that the attack was carried out on motorcycles in the "Valley of Death" area, which extends from the town of Al-Duwair to Abbas Point 5 in the eastern desert of Deir ez-Zor. It is noteworthy that the missing and injured members are all from the Tribal Brigade affiliated with Nawaf al-Bashir, including the leader Khalaf al-Zarzour from the town of Tabiya Jazira and 3 from Khasham.

Who is the leader of the Revolutionary Guard, “Khalaf Al-Zarzour”?

“Khalaf Al-Zarzour” comes from the town of Al-Tabiya, an island in the eastern countryside of Deir Ezzor. He is 37 years old, married to three women. He joined the Free Army at the beginning of the revolution and moved to SDF-controlled areas, only to return under an Iranian settlement mediated by “Nawaf Al-Bashir” in early 2018. “Al-Zarzour” is considered the field commander of the Tribal Brigade militia, led by “Nawaf Al-Bashir”, which is affiliated with the Revolutionary Guard militia. He supervises 11 points in the Maizila area, south of Al-Bukamal, in addition to groups affiliated with the militia in the town of Al-Salhiya in the Al-Bukamal countryside. He receives orders directly from the commander of the Revolutionary Guard militia, called “Hajj Malik,” while presenting the spoils to Al-Bashir in the villas of the suburb of Deir Ezzor. Al-Zarzour is known as a professional thief who searched the entire Muayzilah camp, the T2 station, and a number of engineering equipment from the people of the Albukamal area for the benefit of pilgrims from the Revolutionary Guard militia, and Nawaf Al-Bashir, who uses it to collect money, equipment, food rations, stolen goods, livestock, and agricultural products, and to search items for his own benefit. “Al-Zarzour” manages the “Hajj Malik” building and rest house in the Mu’izila area, and employs its military members to work in exchange for weekly vacations, while receiving sums estimated at hundreds of millions of liras for these works, which he shares with Sheikh “Nawaf Al-Bashir.”
